Part of the Department
for Work and Pensions

Help towards the cost of a funeral from the Social Fund

- Please read this notes booklet
before filling in the claim form

Can you get help?

1 You may be able to get help towards the cost of a funeral if

- you or your partner arranged the funeral in the United Kingdom (UK), and
- the person who has died had their main home in the United Kingdom when they died.

You may also be able to get help if you or your partner arranged the funeral in the European Economic Area or Switzerland. But check with Jobcentre Plus as this will depend on your circumstances.

We use partner to mean

- a person you are married to or a person you live with as if you are married to them, or
- a civil partner or a person you live with as if you are civil partners.

By United Kingdom we mean England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland.

European Economic Area countries are Austria, Belgium, Cyprus, Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Hungary, Iceland, Ireland, Italy, Latvia, Liechtenstein, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Malta, Netherlands, Norway, Poland, Portugal, Slovakia, Slovenia, Spain, Sweden and the UK.

If the funeral was not in one of these countries you cannot get help.

Can you get help? continued

2 You can only get help towards the cost of a funeral if

- you or your partner are getting one of the following qualifying benefits or entitlements:
  - Income Support
  - income-based Jobseeker's Allowance
  - income-related Employment and Support Allowance
  - Pension Credit
  - Housing Benefit
  - Council Tax Benefit
  - Working Tax Credit which includes a disability or severe disability element.
  - Child Tax Credit at a rate higher than the family element.

From April 2009 to April 2010 this means a Child Tax Credit rate of £548 a year or more, or more than £1,095 a year if you have a baby under one. These figures are for a whole year and will be less for part-years, or

- the council tax payer where you live gets a Second Adult Rebate because you are on Income Support, income-based Jobseeker's Allowance, income-related Employment and Support Allowance, Pension Credit or have a low income.

3 You may be able to get help towards the cost of the funeral if

- you have made arrangements for the funeral, and
- you claim within the time limits, and
- you fall into one of the groups of people who are eligible to claim (see note 4).

Who can claim

4 You may get a Funeral Payment if you fall into one of the following groups:

- you were the partner of the deceased at the time of death

For the purposes of claiming a Funeral Payment, we still treat someone as your partner if you were married to them, and living as a couple, civil partners, or living with them as if you were married or civil partners, immediately before you or they went to live in a care home. Or if you were married or civil partners and living in the same care home

- the deceased was a child for whom you were responsible and there is no absent parent (unless they were getting one of the benefits listed in note 2 of this notes booklet when the child died, or they are in one of the groups listed at note 5)

The expression 'child' means a person who is treated as a child for the purpose of the Child Benefit Act, which is:

1. a person under the age of 16
  2. a person under the age of 20, not receiving full-time education and the prescribed conditions are satisfied in relation to them, or
  3. a person over the age of 20 who is receiving non-advanced full-time education by attendance at either
    - a) a recognised educational establishment, or
    - b) elsewhere when it is recognised by the Secretary of State.
- you were the parent of a still-born child

Who can claim continued

- you were a close relative or close friend of the deceased and it is reasonable for you to accept responsibility for the funeral costs, given the nature and extent of your contact with the deceased.

By close relative we mean

- parent, father-in-law, mother-in-law or step-parent
- son, son-in-law, step-son or step-son-in-law
- daughter, daughter-in-law, step-daughter or step-daughter-in-law
- brother or brother-in-law
- sister or sister-in-law.

5 You cannot get a payment as a close relative or close friend of the deceased if

- the deceased had a partner when they died, or
- there is a parent, son or daughter of the deceased who is not getting a qualifying benefit and whose relationship with the person who has died had not broken down, unless that person is, at the date of death
  - under 18
  - a qualifying young person for the purpose of child benefit
  - aged 18 or over and in full-time education
  - receiving asylum support from the National Asylum Support Service (NASS)
  - a fully maintained member of a religious order
  - in prison or hospital immediately following a period on a qualifying benefit
  - ordinarily living outside the United Kingdom,

If there is another close relative of the person who has died who is not getting a qualifying benefit, we may need to consider their circumstances (see note 2).

How to claim

- 6 Fill in form SF200 Funeral Payment from the Social Fund that came with this claim pack. Send it to Jobcentre Plus with all the documents we have asked you for. You must claim within 3 months of the date of the funeral. If you are waiting for a decision on a qualifying benefit or entitlement you must still claim within the time limit.
- Send us the funeral director's
- final bill as soon as you get it, and
  - method of payment form if you have been given one.

Help and advice

- 7 The information in these notes is only a general guide to claiming a Funeral Payment from the Social Fund.

If you want to talk to someone about Funeral Payments get in touch with Jobcentre Plus. We can arrange for someone to see you at home if this is necessary, or at Jobcentre Plus. You can find the phone number and address in the business section of the phone book. Look under Jobcentre Plus.

You can also get more information from www.direct.gov.uk

- 8 If you have difficulty filling in the claim form, someone else can fill it in for you. But remember, you must sign the form yourself. Jobcentre Plus can help you fill in the form or you can ask a relative, or friend, or someone at an advice centre.

The help you can get

- 9 When you arrange the funeral, please tell the funeral director that you will be claiming a Funeral Payment from the Social Fund. We can only consider certain costs, and you will be responsible for the balance.
- 10 The list below sets out what can be included in the Funeral Payment:
- the cost of reopening a grave or opening a new grave and burial costs, or
  - in the case of a cremation
    - the cremation fee
    - the cost of any doctor's certificates
    - the cost of removing a pacemaker or other medical device which must be removed before the cremation
  - the cost of any documents needed for the release of the money, savings and property of the person who has died
  - when it is necessary to move the body over 50 miles within the United Kingdom to the funeral director's premises or place of rest, the reasonable cost of that part of the journey which is over 50 miles
  - when the journey to the funeral is necessarily over 50 miles, the cost of that part of the journey which is over 50 miles for the transport of the coffin and bearers
  - the necessary cost of a return journey for you to either
    - arrange the funeral, or
    - go to the funeral
  - up to £700 for any other funeral expenses. This amount includes all other costs in connection with the funeral. This might include the coffin, cars and the funeral director's fees.

The help you can get continued

11 If you have a bill for an item which has not been provided by the funeral director

This might be, for example, flowers. We may be able to help with these if the amount paid to the funeral director for other funeral expenses is less than £700.

Prepaid funeral plans

12 We need to know if the person who has died had

- a prepaid funeral plan
A prepaid funeral plan is any arrangement made before death to cover some or all of the costs of a funeral
- a funeral bond
- any other prepaid arrangement like these.

13 We cannot help with any of the items and services listed in note 10 of this notes booklet which are already fully covered by a prepaid plan. But you may be able to get a payment for

- the necessary cost of any items listed in note 10 that are not covered by the plan
- the necessary part-cost of any items listed in note 10 that are only partly covered by the plan
- up to £120 for any other funeral expenses.

Prepaid funeral plans continued

- 14 So that we can make a decision about your claim, we need to know what the plan provides. Please send us
- a copy of the original plan
  - any documents you have received from the plan provider showing the items and services that the plan provides for this funeral.
- 15 If a prepaid funeral plan was not paid in full before the person died, we will need to know how much has been repaid or will be repaid by the plan provider. Please send us
- a copy of the original plan
  - any documents you have received from the plan provider showing the amount to be repaid.

About any money you may be able to use for the funeral

- 16 When we work out how much help you can get, we will also look at how much money is available to help you with the cost of the funeral. This could include money from the estate of the person who has died. This could be
- money in a bank, building society or Post Office® account. You may be able to ask the bank or building society to pay the funeral bill if there is enough money in the account
  - money from insurance policies
  - money from an occupational pension scheme
  - money from a burial club or something like this
  - any savings or cash of the person who has died
  - contributions towards the cost of the funeral from relatives or charities.

About any money you may be able to use for the funeral continued

- 17 We will not take into account any lump sum Bereavement Payment of £2,000 from social security or compensation payments from the following government funded trusts
- the MacFarlane Trust
  - the MacFarlane (Special Payments) Trust
  - the MacFarlane (Special Payments) (No 2) Trust
  - the Fund
  - the Eileen Trust
  - the Department of Health payments in respect of victims of Creutzfeldt Jakob disease
  - the Skipton Fund
  - the London Bombings Relief Charitable Fund.

How we will pay you

- 18 If we can pay you a Funeral Payment and the funeral director's bill has not already been paid, we will usually pay directly into the funeral director's bank account. We may, sometimes, send you a cheque made payable to the funeral director. If so, please give the cheque to the funeral director as soon as you receive it.

Send us the funeral director's method of payment form if you have been given one.

If the funeral director's bill has already been paid we will make payment to you, normally directly into an account. Please give us your account details at Part 10 of the claim form.

Paying back a Funeral Payment

- 19 A Funeral Payment made from the Social Fund will have to be paid back from the estate of the person who has died. The law says that funeral expenses must be paid before anything else is paid from the estate.

By estate we mean

- any assets such as property, land, stocks and shares, savings and any other money or cash belonging to, or owed to, the person who has died
- any money that comes into the estate after the person dies.

- 20 Debt Management will write to you or to the person who is looking after the financial affairs of the person who has died. They will ask if the person who has died left any estate from which the Funeral Payment can be repaid.

This is because money is not always immediately available to pay for the funeral, but may become available later. For example, money may be released later or you may find an insurance policy you did not know about.

- 21 We do not count the home occupied by the partner of the person who has died, or personal possessions left to relatives.

How we pay you

We normally pay your money direct into an account

Many banks and building societies will let you collect your money at the post office. We will tell you when your Social Fund payment will be made and how much it will be for.

Finding out how much we have paid into the account

You can check your payments on account statements. The statements may show your National Insurance (NI) number next to any payments we have made. If you think your payment is wrong, get in touch with the office that pays you straight away.

If we pay you too much money

We have the right to take back any money we pay that you are not entitled to. This may be because of the way the system works for payments into an account. For example, you may give us information which means you are entitled to less money. Sometimes we may not be able to change the amount we have already paid you. This means we will have paid you money that you are not entitled to.

We will contact you before we recover any money.

What to do now

- Tell us about the account you want to use on the next page. By giving us your account details you:
